Dear Sir Chapman.

Philadelphia.

Gentlemen

Enclosed you will find a sample copy of "Coin & Stamps". This journal has met with unparalleled success that we can guarantee our advertisers a monthly circulation of five thousand copies among live collectors and coining exchanges. We feel assured that a trial "ad" placed with us would cause you to be a steady patron of the journal we represent.

Our rates are quoted on the other side of sheet.

Trusting we will receive early favorable reply from you I remain

Truly Yours.

Gentlemen

Yours of the 24th with enclosure to hand.

It makes an editor heart glad to receive such practically encouraging letters as yours appeared to be.

Many thanks for your criticisms.

Here are my comments in turn.

Criticism #1 on 1853 2½ Pf.

You ask how many halves I got without cents I have in my possession.

I have two of each denomination which I consider genuine, as to the article leading one to think they were plentiful I should rather think it would lead one to think that alterations were plentiful instead.

I have not sold any of them. I hold 'em too high I guess.

Over

Criticism #1 I will correct the impression about Dupont Circle.

Bingham of Mt Sterling Ky was my only authority for the statement.

Criticism #2 I think the remark about Russian Coins applied only to the Gold.

Will be pleased to insert notice of auction sale in March number, the forms for February being now closed.

Any auction sale notices &c etc you may wish to have inserted must reach me by the 20th of each month as the forms close promptly on the 21st.

You see I am not a printer but a dentist and what my printer says must go.

I wrote you several days since in regard to advertising in my Journal.

I trust you may see your way to doing so as the really large proportion of coin collectors among my subscribers would justify a coin dealer's "ad" of considerable dimensions.

Thanking you again for kind interest I remain Truly Yours

Two postcards, same date.

San Antonio, Tex.
3/10/92.

Gentlemen:

My object has been
I start on a bicycle trip through Mexico to three months.
Can you bring the 1852
half dollar, trade to a close of some kind before this date
(the 23)
Pardon my seeming impatience
but in view of the above fact you will of course excuse
my haste.
Is there anything in the Mexican Coin line you might want?
What can you offer for a 1/2 escudo (gold) 1/10 of Mexican? in very good condition
If you care for it make an offer in answer.

Very Truly Yours

Gentlemen

The returned ½ dol came to hand to-day; I feel seriously disappointed at your opinion, though I consider it conclusive. I have always regarded the weight as positive proof of its genuineness. I will send the other one which is of N. O. Mintage and weighs a trifle more.

Please pass your opinion and if unfavorable please return to

D. Jackson & Breeding,
234 & 140 Houston St.
San Antonio, Texas.

If favorable please hold till you hear from me after informing the above party. (father)

I did not know the coin was so rare as you say or I would have kept it myself. I have one of this date in my cabinet.
